

In the interest of public safety and maintaining the highest standards of Amateur Radio I urge you to consider this petition. The lower class licencees would have easy access to the radio spectrum without morse code requirements, while the graduated higher classes set increasing standards with additional rewards commiserate with their demonstrated ability and interests.